

HANDEL'S ISRAEL IN EGYPT

Weekend Workshop lead by John Hancorn

Beechwood Hall, Cooksbridge. BN7 3QG
28/29 July 2018

Come and join John Hancorn and the East Sussex Bach Choir for a weekend singing the exciting choruses of Handel's Israel in Egypt. The piece follows and celebrates the Israelites escape from captivity in Egypt. Based on biblical texts the music depicts the various plagues and catastrophes inflicted on the Egyptians to persuade them to let the Israelites go. A piece every choral singer should have the opportunity to sing! So, do come along.

Beechwood Hall, Cooksbridge is just 3 miles north of Lewes on the A275 and is a marvellous setting for a summer weekend of singing. Plenty of parking and open grounds for picnics at lunchtime.

Saturday, 28 th July	10.00	Registration and coffee
	10.30 – 13.00	Morning session
	13.00 - 14.00	Lunch (bring your own picnic)
Sunday, 29 th July	14.00 - 16.30	Afternoon session including tea break
	14.00 - 17.30	Final session including tea break

Cost: £25 for one day, £40 for both days including music and teas/coffee

Registration now open. Please register early as places limited. For full details including booking form, payment arrangements and location of Beechwood Hall see ESBC website: www.eastsussexbachchoir.org or see booking form below.

HANDEL'S ISRAEL IN EGYPT

Weekend Workshop lead by John Hancorn

Beechwood Hall, Cooksbridge. BN7 3QG
28/29 July 2018

REGISTRATION FORM

Name(s):

Email / or contact details.....

.....

Voice Part (s).....

Do you need to hire music ? YES / NO

Please tick which day/s you would like to attend and number of places

Type of ticket	Number of places	Total cost	Type of payment (tick as appropriate)
			Bank transfer	Cheque
Both days at cost of £40:
Saturday only at cost of £25
Sunday only at cost of £25

Cheques should be made payable to East Sussex Bach Choir and sent with the registration form to :

Mrs Jean Hill, 23 The Belfry, Hailsham, BN27 3UG